Creating your Movie

To create your movie, select something from the toolbar, and drag it into the action/ text box.

WRITE THE SCRIPT

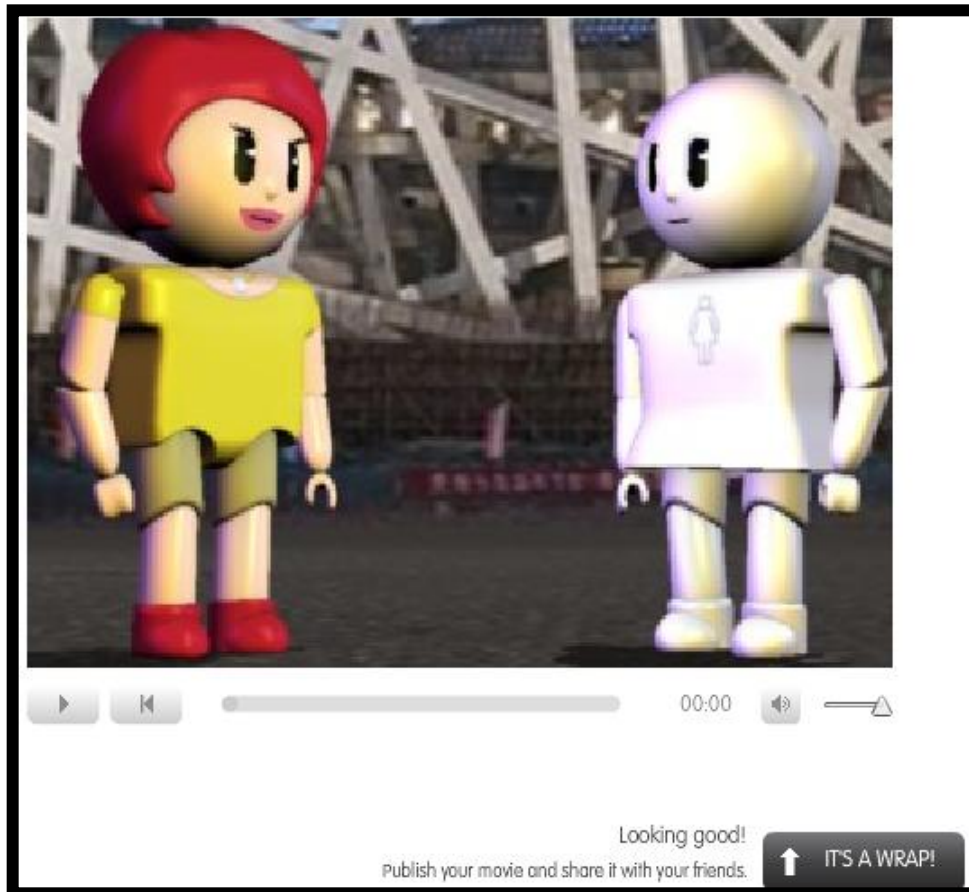

The screenshot shows a software interface titled "WRITE THE SCRIPT". At the top, there are two character icons in separate boxes. Below them is a large text area with the placeholder text "Type here to make me say something". To the right of the text area is a circular icon containing a walking figure, which is highlighted with a yellow circle. An arrow points from a blue text box on the right to this icon. Another arrow points from a blue text box at the bottom left to the character selection area.

Action dragged into script box.

When writing text for your characters, you can switch between characters to show who is talking in your movie.

It's A Wrap!

After you have written your script and added your actions its time to hit the 'it's a wrap' button and watch your movie come to life.
